Soldiers use simulator to prepare for war

U.S. Army, Pacific Public Affairs Office

FORT SHAFTER, Hawaii – Soldiers from the 2nd Stryker Brigade Combat Team are training at the Battle Command Training Center on Schofield Barracks in preparation for their upcoming deployment to Iraq.

Units are employing the Stryker driver trainer, aviation, squad and convoy live fire simulators.

Media representatives are invited Tuesday, May 15, to view training and tour the training center. Media members are asked to be at the McNair gate no later than 9 a.m.

Media interested in attending are requested to respond no later than 5 p.m., Monday, May 14, to Sgt. 1st Class Christina Bhatti, at 438-2662 or cell: 227-2073, or email at christina.bhatti@us.army.mil.
